BRIEFINGS.

—Glorious autumn weather.

—Farmers took advantage of the fine weather and crowded our streets to-day.

—Meeting of the Y. M. C. A. in the social room of the Baptist church, at 8:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

—The thermometer at Prentice and Evenson's to-day registered 47 degrees above zero at 7 a. m. and 69 degrees at 1 p. m.

—W. H. Sargent Post No. 20, G. A. R., want it understood that everybody is invited to be present at their entertainment at Lappin's music hall next Friday evening.

—The board of directors of the fair association, will probably be enabled to furnish a complete list of the premiums awarded at the recent fair, in the early part of the week.

—The negotiations between Trinity church and the Rev. F. B. Dunham, of South Bend, Ind., are still pending, but it is very probable that Mr. Dunham will accept the call. He will preach here at Trinity to-morrow at both services.

—A new fancy goods store is to be established in Janesville by Mr. S. M. Smith, who has located on Main street near Court street, in the Methodist church block. Mr. Smith proposes to keep everything in the fancy goods line and settles here after canvassing a large number of other places in the west.

—A small boy enlivened a portion of the second ward early this morning by howling on account of a slight boot application made by the owner of some apples the robin was appropriating. The dulcet tones of his voice roused half the neighborhood, and awoke the dull echoes for a mile around. The boy would make a good locomotive whistle.

—A fire which did no appreciable damage occurred at about 11 o'clock last night in a coal shed of the Janesville Machine company on River street. The flames were first discovered by officer Ed Smith who turned in the alarm, to which the fire department readily responded. Marshal Hogan and Mr. Thos. Mahon endeavored to extinguish the fire before the arrival of the department, but succeeded only in keeping it within bounds. The department worked for about half an hour, when all danger was over and the remnants of the fire were put out by the machine company's pump.

—Has the brown brigade disbanded, and is the Orpheus club no more? The threatened dissolution of these two organizations should be averted as they are both great social attractions, and apparently there is no good or urgent reason why their existence should not be preserved. It is true, that in losing Prof. Titcomb the Orpheus club was deprived of the director to whose patience and endeavors the club owed its existence, yet it would seem possible to do without him. The brown brigade, however, has no such reason, unless the members consider that they have already served the purpose of organization.

—Too Fastidious.

Some would-be Brown look on with disgust at the hymns of "Electric Oil" poets. But we have the best evidence known to the world, and intend that all persons who know of it, shall know of it. It cures colds, coughs, asthma and catarrhs, bronchitis and complaints of that kind; it does not cost much, though it cures it. It is the oil in the world you can find.

—The audience at the Bower City band concert at Lappin's music hall last night was not as large, as those which greeted the previous entertainments of this kind given by the band. Those who were present, were thoroughly satisfied with the evening's enjoyment, and expressed it in frequent applause. The band gave some fine numbers in their best style evidencing a continued improvement in their concert playing. Mrs. J. B. Day, contributed her talent by giving an excellent reading and Mrs. H. A. Smith delighted the audience with a song. Mr. C. H. Patterson and the Geiss brothers, added other entertaining features, and the dance at Apollo hall afterwards served to make the whole affair a complete success.

—Special Notice.

To all Nominees of the Republican party in Rock county:

You are respectfully requested to meet with the Republican committee at the County Clerk's office at the Court House in the city of Janesville on Monday, Oct. 16th 1892 at 2 p. m.

W. T. VANKIRK,
Chairman County Committee

—Personal.

—Mr. O. H. Fethers speaks at Kenosha to-night.

—The Rev. J. W. Sanderson was visible on the streets to-day.

—Messrs. E. Danbar and M. D. Owen, of Footville, are in the city.

—Mr. J. H. Reigart, of Beloit, was a guest at the Myers house to-day.

—Mrs. O. H. Fethers, has gone to Chicago where she will visit a week.

—We regret to note that Mrs. Hutson is quite sick though not in a dangerous condition.

—Mr. J. E. Chapman, of the McCormick reaper company, has returned from an Ohio trip.

—The Rev. L. P. Norcross is in the city on a visit to his brother, the Hon. Philip Norcross.

—Mr. C. W. Ferguson has returned from an eastern trip. He showed us this morning a mammoth onion which had been raised in Spain and was worth fifteen cents a pound.

—Mr. W. M. McManus, advance agent for the Frohman brothers attractions, "Hazel Kirke," "Esmeralda," and "The Professor," was in the city to-day, and made the Gazette office a pleasant call.

—Hon. S. L. James, of Janesville, was in the city to-day. Mr. J. has been considerably inclined towards prohibition candidates this fall, but he has heard the news from Ohio, and he is now thinking—Beloit Free Press.

—Epilepsy (Etc.)

THE STARK INQUIRY.

The City Council Committee Investigated the Death in Jail—the Testimony in Brief.

The judiciary committee of the city council, composed of aldermen Robinson, Murdock and Potter, with the city attorney and health officer added, met last night and examined witnesses into the cause of the death of Louis Stark who died in the county jail September 13, of congestion of the lungs.

Mr. John Huntress the first witness examined stated that he saw the deceased between 7 and 8 o'clock Sunday morning sitting on the steps near the back factory, on Main street, and that a few moments afterwards he saw Stark lying in the sand, having evidently fallen from his seat. The man appeared drunk. Witnesses did not go near enough to smell any liquor.

Elmer Maine—Was in the engine house stable about 10 o'clock Sunday morning, September 17, when he was asked where the man was who entered the house. A search was made and the man was discovered lying on his back among some straw in the rear of the engine room. Some one said it would be a good joke to wet him and sober him up, which was done. Witnesses did not know who did the wetting. On being sprinkled deceased rose to go out, saying he had paid for his lodging. He was given an other-donkey and left the engine house. Deceased looked as if he was drunk, but witnesses did not smell any liquor. Witnesses were afterwards told the deceased walked from the engine house to the stairs next to the back factory and fell off.

This was a little after 10 o'clock.

Here Mr. Huntress interjected that the man must have been in that place twice, and fell from it twice, as he, Huntress had seen him between seven and eight o'clock.

Marshal Hogan—Witness described how he found the man lying in the sand opposite Mr. Peter Myers' lot on north Main street. The man's clothes were damp, and he looked as though he were drunk. Mr. Edward Ellsworth accompanied witness, and when witness went to get a wagon to take deceased to jail, he left the man in charge of Mr. Ellsworth. Witness took Stark in his arms and placed him in the wagon and took him out in the same way at the jail. Deceased never uttered a word, on the way to jail. Witness did not smell liquor on deceased. The clothes of deceased were wet, but not thoroughly.

Edward Ellsworth—Went with Marshal Hogan to where Stark was lying with his face partially buried in the sand. Witness brushed the sand off the clothes of deceased, which were wet. The hat was saturated and heavy with water. At the request of Mr. John T. Fields, who informed Marshal Hogan of the man's presence in the sand. Witness asked deceased in German, if he had been drinking. Deceased replied that he was not drunk but sick. Witness leaned over him but could not smell any liquor. Helped to take the man to jail. Did not hear deceased say a word on the way to jail or afterwards. Told the sheriff that he believed the man was sick, as he said he was. Witness did not believe the man was drunk. This was between 10:30 and 11:30 a. m.

Antone Behrendt, testified how the man came to his house on Friday and paid for his supper and lodging. The man looked as though he were drunk. Deceased never drank anything in his house but two bottles of pop, and never asked for anything stronger. Deceased always wanted to sleep and had been found three or four times lying in the barns in the neighborhood. Deceased said he was not a drinking man nor did he smoke. He had been in the country seven years and had saved $700. Deceased slept one night in a barn. Did not smell any liquor on the man.

John C. Spencer—Saw deceased Saturday afternoon at about 5 o'clock, in rear of Watson's barn. He looked like a very drunken man. Spoke to him in a joking way about his having too much. Deceased replied he could get all the beer he wanted. Saw him again about 10 o'clock Sunday morning walking on North First street, very drunk, and staggering against the side of the Spence house. Witness was positive the man was drunk, but did not detect the smell of liquor.

John Slightam—Saw the deceased at about 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. He appeared drunk. Witness was four or five rods from the deceased who was leaning in a sitting posture against a barn.

John Spence—Deceased applied to him for lodging and was sent to Antone Behrendt. Deceased looked as if he was drunk, but did not take a drink.

Sheriff Skavlem—Between 11 and 12 o'clock Sunday Stark was brought to the jail. His clothes were damp. The hat was soaking wet, and witness asked if the man had been in the river. Mr. Ellsworth said he did not think the man was drunk—that deceased said he was sick and he believed him. Witness was told that the man had been sprinkled by the boys at the engine house. On searching the man a $5 bill was found in the outside coat pocket, and a pocket book with some change in another pocket. The $5 bill was wet, and the pocket book dry. Contained about the shoulders. In answer to questions deceased said he had not drank any whisky and mumbled something like "too much beer."

Deceased said he had come from Milwaukee. Witness did not smell any liquor or the first time he visited deceased but did the second time. Witness stated that the cell had been occupied previously by two for three drunken men and that the cells where very drunken men were confined, would sometimes be impregnated with the smell of liquor two or three days. Deceased looked like a man who had been soaked with drink. His face was all bloated.

Arthur Ott—Is a member of Water Witch engine company. Worked pump in engine house when water was sprinkled on deceased, who could not be seen from where the pump was. Pump was worked twice. Deceased walked out of engine house looking as if he was drunk.

Richard Hepp also a member of the company testified to working the pump. Telephone company employees assisted in the sprinkling.

Dr. Whiting testified to visiting the man at the jail for the first time at about 8 o'clock Monday morning, when congestion had already set in. After witness visited patient, he was kindly treated. Witness thought the wetting deceased had received, might have had something to do with his death. The man looked very much like a man who had been on a prolonged debauch. The man's bowels had not moved in jail. Deceased was feverish.

The committee adjourned, agreeing that the men who did the sprinkling were culpable.

The Robbers of Mr. Coon.

The man mentioned in yesterday's Gazette as being one of the persons who assaulted and robbed Mr. R. R. Coon last Saturday night on South Main street is named Michael Ryan, and another person who was arrested as Ryan's accomplice is known as Thompson. In making these arrests, Marshal Hogan and officer Ed. Smith deserve a great deal of credit, as the case was well worked up. Officer Smith first obtained intelligence of the robbers, and after interviewing one of them, informed Marshal Hogan. Thompson was first visited by Officer Smith, and in response to questions, produced Mr. Coon's hat and the certificate of deposit on the Rock county bank for $350 which was stolen from Mr. Coon. Thompson explained that he had found this property, where he had seen some one hide it. Officer Smith had already been reliably informed that Ryan was the principal party concerned in the robbery, and gave him the information to Marshal Hogan, at the same time resigning the check to the Marshal. Ryan was arrested yesterday afternoon by Marshal Hogan at Monticore, and Thompson was apprehended later in the afternoon by officer Smith. The work was very cleverly executed by the officers.

Marshal Hogan suspected these parties as soon as he was informed of the robbery but he could not work it up as he had to leave the city for a couple of days. During his absence officer Smith got a "pointer" and on the marshal's return he succeeded in inducing confessions from companions of the two men arrested who were with them on Saturday night, and left them when Coon was met, in obedience to Mike Ryan who said, "Screw your nuts felle wus."

As Mr. Coon was unable to identify his despoilers, their apprehension is an excellent piece of work. They were brought up in court late this afternoon for examination.
